NEWS FROM THE METROPOLIS

Ready for a Rainy Day.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27--Isaac Smith & Sons' umbrella store, 1,063 Broadway, was robbed by burglars Sunday night of two hundred and seventy-five silk umbrellas, valued at $8,000.

Statue of W. H. Seward.

Handolph Rogers' statue of the late Wm. H. Seward will be unveiled to-day.
 It will occupy a position in the southwest corner of Madison Park, overlooking Broadway, Fifth avenue and Twenty-third streets. It cost $35,000, and will compare favorably as a work of art with any of the well-known statues in the city.

The Hell Gate Channel.

Sounding operations began at Hell Gate yesterday at low tide. The water at mean low tide was from sixteen to twenty-one feet deeper than the former depth of the reef, and this strengthens the opinion that the reef has been totally demolished. This would give a depth at high tide ranging from twenty-eight to thirty or thirty-five feet, which is fully up to General Newton's calculations.
 After the removal of the debris it may be found that the channel depth will be even much greater than has been expected.

The Next Grand Explosion will be on the occasion of the demolition of Flood Rock, or Middle Reef, eight hundred feet from Hall's Point. The area is about seven acres, or fully twice the size of Hell Gate Reef. The central shaft has already been sunk and two tunnels excavated. The shafts are forty-one feet below mean low tide. One tunnel is one hundred and ten feet long, leading southwest; another is eighty-one feet long, leading northeast. It is proposed to get twenty-six feet of water, and to do this it will be necessary to remove a reef of rock nine hundred feet long and five hundred feet wide. It will be two years, however, ere New York and vicinity will be excited by this mammoth explosion. When it is accomplished the channel will be twelve hundred feet wide.

An Encouraging View of the Business Prospects.

The Herald editorially discussing the business prospects expresses the belief that setting aside the natural stir and increase in purchases and in other large cities, and putting away all temporary causes there is not only in New York but all over the country a real revival of trade, moderate in its proportions and promising to last, and to increase and have its effect upon the general industry. The evidence of the business revival attracts attention not only here but in Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and all the centers of trade.
 Both Southern and Western trade is undoubtedly brisk, and there can be no doubt of the present revival of trade. The Herald believes that it is not a spasmodic movement; but that unless some unforeseen cause intervenes it will continue, and that we are at last on the upward way. It asserts as the cause of the revival, the improvement of the people as a whole since 1873, and the more prudent conduct of every citizen and federal officer, and says that with continued confidence on the part of business men, a sound and stable currency to carry on business on business principles, and a revision of the laws affecting commerce and production, the recovery of prosperity will be lasting.

The President at Ithaca.

A special Grant and wife arrived there last evening from Maunohunk. They were met at the depot by Jesse R. Grant and proceeded to the hotel. A large throng of citizens gathered at the depot to see the President. The President would be delivered. A. W. Esty, President of the village, was presented to the President by young Grant, but no public words of welcome were spoken. The visitors will remain a day or two, visiting Cornell University, in which Jesse is a member of the junior class.

Honors to Gen. Newton.

A complimentary reception to General Newton, engineer of the Hell Gate explosion, has been proposed, and the first steps toward carrying out the plan have been taken.

The time and place suggested are

Monday evening next, at Gilmore's Garden. Several New York papers urge the changing of the name from Hell Gate to Newton's Channel in honor of the great engineer.

FOREIGN.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

SEVRIAN COMPLICATIONS.

LONDON, Sept. 27--A dispatch to Renter's Telegram Company, from Belgrade, says the Serbian Government has given formal notice to all its military commanders of a prolongation of the suspension of hostilities.

The Russian consul, in an interview with Milan yesterday, pointed out to him that Europe regarded the proclamation of the army, declaring him King, with displeasure, and advised him to summon Gen. Tchernayeff to Belgrade and explain to him that the acceptance of the Royal title would cause fresh complications.

The Austrian Consul on Saturday asked for explanations concerning General Tchernayeff's proclamation. Prince Milan replied that he was endeavoring to arrange matters in a manner showing due consideration for the feelings of the army, whose support was absolutely necessary to him. He said that General Tchernayeff and the army adhered to the proclamation despite the disavowal of the War Minister. He added that a definite resolution concerning the proclamation would be taken when the War Minister returned from the camp.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 27--A council of the Sultan's Ministers was held yesterday, when it was decided to create a General Elective Council for all Turkey, composed of thirty Moslems and thirty Christians, to draw up a system of reforms and carry the same into operation.

TWENTY HOMEWARD BOUNDS.

VIGO, SPAIN, Sept. 27--Last night Wm. M. Tweed, escorted by troops of Spanish soldiers, was taken from the Castillo Del Castro and marched through the most unfrequented streets of the city to the pier, when he was put into the Franklin's boat, and taken aboard of the vessel. The citizens of Vigo are incensed and indignant at the Spanish authorities for surrendering Tweed to the American Government.

MORE BUTCHERIES.

LONDON, Sept. 27--A dispatch received here states that the Mussulman troops have massacred seven hundred Christians, chiefly Armenians, at Erzeraum, the Armenian Capital.

Frightful barbarities are said to have been committed. The Armenians are apprehensive of a repetition of the outrages. The receipt of the news of the massacre causes great excitement here.

WHAT DOES DREYFUS THINK.

LONDON, Sept. 27--Lord Durburgh, in replying to a deputation that waited upon him to-day, said he believed that the peace of Europe would not be broken by the present difficulties in the East. Hostilities in Turkey and Serbia would not probably be renewed. Sir Henry Elliot had been authorized to demand from the Sultan the punishment of the perpetrators of the outrages in Bulgaria, and that immediate measures would be made for the relief of Bulgaria. He believed that an autumn session of Parliament would be unnecessary because negotiations for peace would be concluded before Parliament could assemble.

International Rifle Shooting.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27--The weather yesterday was very unfavorable, and the attendance at the international rifle shooting was therefore small. None of the teams were fully represented, and individual firing was the order of the day. Each man fired ten shots, the highest possible score being fifty.

The following score was made of the Irish Team--Evans, 39; Fenton, 48; Giff, 31; Green, 34; Joyce, 33; Milner, 40; Rigby, 41; Thynne, 41; Dyas, 41.

Of the Scotch Team--Boyd, 48; Rae, 44; Thorburn, 33; Mitchell fired five shots, making 15, then retired; Luke, 37; Menzies, 35.

Of the Australian Team--Gee, 37; King, 37; Lynch, 41; Slade, 45.

Of the Team--Allen, 35; Ballard, 17; Bodine, 35; Blydenburgh, 40; Overburgh, 17; Rathbone, 44; Anderson, 38; Weber, 47; Canfield, 42.

Minor Mentions.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

IRONTON, Sept. 27--Wm. Lambert, of the firm of Lambert & Gordon, of the Olive Foundry and Machine Works, died yesterday at 2:15 P. M., aged seventy.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27--Mrs. Jane Cruik, the widow of the soldier who died in Andersonville prison, has been appointed postmistress at Georgetown, Brown County, Ohio.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27--Lord Duferin and party left for the East this morning. They will stop a few days at Cheyenne, Denver, St. Louis, and perhaps visit Salt Lake. They will proceed direct from St. Louis to Ottawa.

A Contradiction.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 17--The News and Courier of this city says:
 "Some Northern papers published a report, taken from a Radical journal, that the Democratic party in South Carolina are considering the advisability of withdrawing their candidates for Congress and principal Electors. We have the highest authority for saying no such withdrawal has been discussed or contemplated under any circumstances. The whole ticket, Federal and State, will stand as nominated."

Obituary.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Sept. 27--Rev.
 William Gross, Presiding Elder of this District Methodist Episcopal Church, died at his residence in this city this morning of typhoid fever, after a short illness.

SAVANNAH, GA., Sept. 27--Sister Mary Martha, of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, and Rev. E. H. Myers, a Methodist minister, died here yesterday.

A Visit to the Jewish Hospital.

To the Editor of the STAR:

Recently the writer took occasion to visit Isaac Wise, Esq., Superintendent of the Jewish Hospital, corner of Third and Bain streets, on some legal business, and was highly pleased with the hospitable treatment he received.

Mrs. Barbara Wise, wife of Mr. Wise, is a very intelligent and estimable lady.

The culinary department of this institution is under her personal supervision, and is splendidly managed.

We were invited to examine the dispensary, sleeping apartments, parlor, and reception room, all in good order and arranged with excellent taste.

After taking a social glass with mine host, we bid them good-by, fully convinced that the management of this little hospital is equal, if not superior, to any of like character in our great city.

RICHARD ADAMS, a New Yorker, and Charles St. Clair, from St. Louis, went into the yard of Mrs. Hattie Young yesterday morning and stole a bucket of milk. Being arrested soon after and searched, a handsome revolver of French make, a bunch of keys and a ladies' shawl was found upon Adams. This morning Judge Lindemann sentenced them to the Kuchmeister, who lives on York street. Part of the goods were found at Suttendorf's, and the family getting scared by threats of arrest compromised the matter by the payment to Kuchmeister of $15.

 Officer Epping, hearing of the circumstance, arrested the Suttendorfs, and charged them with receiving stolen goods. Soon after two small boys were arrested and charged with stealing the goods. Their names are Louis Kun-zman and Chas. Stumman. Both pleaded guilty to the charge of receiving, but their cases were laid over until to-morrow in order to summon their parents best to send them to the House of Reform. The charge against the Suttendorfs will be examined into on the 30th.

 of the city and vicinity, and the unanimous verdict was one of unqualified in-demnification.

Miss Cora Dean is a vocalist of rare talent and ability, and her singing last night was especially fine.

 The many friends of Mr. Miller in this
